

Ingeniería Magnética Aplicada, S.L.U. as magnetic product manufacturer, applications and magnetic systems directed towards all the industrial sectors, led by the General Manager, incorporates as business philosophy the commitment to promote the health and safety at work, customer's satisfaction and respect for the environment.

- I. Implementing and maintaining an Environmental Management System that promotes pollution prevention through the implementation of good environmental practice.
- II. Assuming the respect for the Environment and Pollution Prevention through the identification of aspects and environment issues generated by our activities and process, products and services, minimizing them as far as possible.
- III. According to the Legal Product Requirements, Environment Management and health and safety at Work, as well as other requirements endorsed by the customer and stakeholders.
- IV. Applying the best available technics (MTD's) to carry out the activity in the most sustainable way, energetically efficient and economically feasible.
- V. Implementing all the investigation's and occurrences methodologies, involvement of workers, including the Continuous Improvements of Quality, Environmental Management and health and safety at work
- VI. Promoting awareness and appropriate training of Quality and Environment and Safety and Health at work to all our stakeholders to achieve our business goal.